

PRESS RELEASE, 13. 12. 2017, BRNO

JANÁČEK BRNO 2018 STARTS STRONG

6th International Opera and Music Festival

17. 11. – 5. 12. 2018

After only a month of ticket sales, the Janáček Brno 2018 festival has its first three sold-out concerts!

Even though there are still more than 11 months left before the Janáček Brno 2018 music festival commences, or in other words almost a whole year, the first three concerts are completely sold out. It's not even four weeks since the tickets went on sale! There is enormous interest in the tickets for the festival - close to 1000 have already been sold, netting the theatre more than 320 000 CZK. Approximately 5 000 more tickets have been ordered or booked.

"We are immensely happy that the Janáček Brno 2018 music festival has stirred up so much interest. We can see from the sales system that tickets for the festival have been bought not only by people from the Czech Republic but also from Canada, the Netherlands, Austria, Great Britain and Germany." (Martin Glaser, Director of National Theatre Brno)

Prospective visitors no longer have the opportunity to buy tickets for the matinees featuring Jan Jiraský (24. 11. 2018) and the Janáček Academy of Music and Performing Arts (18. 11. 2018) at the Leoš Janáček Memorial. Martin Kasík's piano recital at the Villa Tugendhat (25. 11. 2018) is also hopelessly sold out. Tickets for other events are disappearing rapidly, too.

"We are expecting a further increase in sales before Christmas – the Janáček Brno 2018 festival programme is an almost bottomless source of exclusive Christmas presents. If you wish to get the best festival seats, you shouldn't postpone the purchase of tickets till next year." (Martin Glaser, Director of National Theatre Brno)

The Janáček Brno 2018 festival will present twenty-eight productions of the highest quality over nineteen days. The festival programme is devoted to the 100th anniversary of the foundation of the Czechoslovak Republic. It presents the complete theatrical works of Leoš Janáček and features many world-class directors (Ivo van Hove, Robert Carsen, Kornél Mundruczó, Alvis Hermanis and David Pountney) and productions with excellent performers (Tomáš Hanus, Tomáš Netopil, Thomas Adès, Simona Houda-Šaturová, the Pavel Haas Quartet, and many more).
